

Divorce Renunciation

Father God, I take responsibility for my generation who have had a divorce. I forgive _____ for having a divorce. I forgive my parents for their bitterness towards each other. I stand in the gap and renounce the curse of divorce, and bitterness, ask you to break the curse of divorce and bitterness.

Father God, I take responsibility for my sins for having a divorce, strife, unforgiveness, etc. I ask for your forgiveness. I forgive my spouse, _____ for not honoring, hurting me, or being unfaithful. I give my spouse _____ over to you. Father God, break the curse of divorce and possible bitterness. I know not all marriages are made in heaven. If, for some reason, this marriage was meant to be, I pray you will heal the both of us and that we come together again. Forgive me for having a divorce. If not made in heaven, then, help me to move on and walk in forgiveness. Amen.

Revised: 5/14/23