

Matriarchal Control Renunciation

Woman prays:

“Father, I confess my sins and the iniquities of my fathers. All-... every female, Father, I repent, for hatred of men, hatred of males, hatred of fathers, and hatred of husbands. I repent and call it a sin.

“Father, I repent for generational iniquity that would accuse males. I recognize it is not them. It is the sin that lives within. I hated them. And I have been repaying evil with evil, sin with sin. And I repent for that this day, in the name of Jesus. And I ask to be delivered from these Accusing Spirits against God and against husbands and against men in the name of Jesus, Amen.”

Just as the Word says, “when a man finds a wife, he finds a good thing. So when I find a husband, I’ve found a greater thing, and that is the will of God - to give me someone who can cover me and protect me and show me the Father, and show me the Lord as a husband.
