

Ungodly Vows and Renunciation Prayer

You can ask God to help you to identify your own ungodly beliefs - that are not God's highest truth about yourself, others, or God. Finish these sentences with your most ungodly belief or thought, no matter how old. Give this to the participant to go through the list.

Questions to ask:

Did I sow a word curse and now I am reaping it, more and later? Gal. 6:7-10
Did I dishonor my parents or other authorities? Eph. 6:1-3
Did I judge someone and now I draw that thing to me? Matt. 7:1, Rom. 2:1-4
Did a bitter root expectation spring up in me, defiling others? Heb. 12:14-15

Dear Lord Jesus, I come asking for forgiveness in five ways:

1. I confess my sin of believing the ungodly belief (or judging, or dishonoring, or making the inner vow, bitterroot expectation, bitterroot judgment) that _____.
2. I forgive those who contributed to me forming this ungodly belief, dishonor, expectation, etc.
3. I ask you, Lord, to forgive me for living my life according to this ungodly belief.
4. Please forgive me for judging and dishonoring others according to this ungodly belief.
5. Forgive me for blaming you, Father God.

6. I forgive myself for believing this ungodly belief and living according to it.
7. I renounce and break my agreement with this UGB and the agreement that I have had with the powers of darkness and with demons.
8. I choose to accept, believe, and receive the Godly belief that
_____.

Father God, I receive your forgiveness in the mighty name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth. Amen.
